

Club Constitution

1. Name

- a) The Club shall be called Go Explore Camping Club ('the Club')

2. Aims and Objectives

- a) To promote responsible land use for camping and caravanning across England & Wales
- b) To promote and demonstrate the excellence of the England & Wales' wonderful countryside
- c) To encourage sustainable tourism by facilitating the meeting of people who own land and want to make it available for use and people who want to visit places of interest for recreation and relaxation purposes.
- d) We licence, administer, advise and promote campsites.

3. Structure

- a) The club will be formally incorporated as a Limited Company in England & Wales.

4. Management

- a) The overall management of the Club shall be in the hands of the ('Director').
- b) The clubs AGM will be held on 1st of October each year.

5. Membership

- a) The club is non-exclusive and any person over the age of 16 may apply to become a member regardless of race, colour, creed, religion, sexual orientation or background.
- b) Landowners who are members of the club (and over the age of 18) may apply for an exemption certificate which will only be issued following local consultation, and a site visit to ensure that compliance with the Clubs Code of Conduct will be possible.
- c) Membership does not confer any rights of voting, or participation in the AGM, although being a member does not preclude the opportunity to recruited to management positions

6. Finances

- a) Club funds received through operating activities will be entirely used at the discretion of the Club, and will be directed at ensuring continued support for the development, growth and maintenance of the Club.
- b) The core principles and ethos of the Club will remain the same but amendments may over time be necessary to ensure their clarification and maintenance.
- c) the Club members may make suggestions regarding changes to the Club constitution and Code of Conduct by email or in person at any time.

d) Changes to rules and policies within the constitution may be made at any time only by and following agreement between all board directors of the Club.

7. Dissolution

a) The Club directors may decide at any time to dissolve the Club only by agreement between all directors.

b) Income, expenditure, equipment, leases and any other assets, holdings and financial commitments are held and managed by Go Explore Camping Ltd. & In the event of the Club dissolving, the liquidation process will not include equal distribution of either any assets or any debts to any members other than the directors and by agreement between themselves.